arrived, so I received badly' wounded.
Smith called at night school last Friday and told me he had seen you and survived -- so I asked him to remember me to you which I hope the warlet did. Have you heard the story of the German soldier who had his foot shot off and asked the Irish private to carry him to the rear. On the way a shell took off the German's head but Mick went on ignorant of the fact. On arrival, the C.O. said, 'What's the good of bringing in a man with his head shot off, Mick?'
"His head, is it" says Mick "He told me it was his foot"! So Cheer up, Arthur you'll soon be up and doing, and
